

CASE STUDY - Queensland University of Technology

Customer Overview

Be seated on a range of chairs and stools Science and Technology Department

Queensland University of Technology is a large and established university FWoW central Brisbane, well known for renowned for providing high-quality, real world-focused teaching across the fields of science, technology, engineering, mathematics and urban development, a total of 21 teaching disciplines within 6 schools.

The requirement

Queensland University of Technology use a range of Uplifting Solutions lab chairs throughout most of the science and technology faculties. Products used include the Clam chair, the AMB lab stool, and the AMB lab chair and the round stool, equipped with brake loaded castors, soft castors, glides and steel foot-rings for the drafting style chairs that are used at the lab benches.

Overall, Queensland University of Technology has about 500 chairs from Uplifting Solutions purchased over a 6 year period.

